

From: Louis Vonderscheer
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 10:03pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Microsoft has and is one of the software sector's largest predators. Their practices have destroyed many companies that produced excellent products, leaving users such as myself with few alternatives. I believe that Microsoft should not walk away from this case with a slap on the wrist. An example needs to be set that robber barons in a new form cannot be tolerated. Thank you for allowing me to have even minor input regarding this issue.

F. Vonderscheer
Redding/Sacramento
California